Dear Henri,

You were very encouraging and seemingly pleased with my orchestral suite, Frank Calluna, associate conductor of the Kansas City Symphony, last week. My cassette and program at long last, as well as the tape I committed for you to do the tape work. I would like you to do the tape work if you can find a suitable place on your program this year? I have parts and necessary material for you. Your interest is appreciated. You have the cassette, I hope for further listening — Hope you have a pleasant Carmen.
Dear Henri –

You were very encouraging and seemingly pleased with my Orchestral Suite. Frank Collura, associate conductor of the Kansas City Symphony, listened to my cassette and is wild about it; so much so, that he wants to program it soon – I would like you to do the Los Angeles Premiere; if, you can find a suitable place on your programs this year? I have parts and necessary material for you.

Your interest is appreciated.

You have the cassette; I hope, for further listening – Hope you had a pleasant summer

Cordially – Carmine C –
