

12-5-1992

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (delmoni)

Arturo Delmoni

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Delmoni, Arturo, "Henri Temianka Correspondence; (delmoni)" (1992). Henri Temianka Correspondence. 2484.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence/2484

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Henri Temianka Archives at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Henri Temianka Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (delmoni)

Description

This collection contains material pertaining to the life, career, and activities of Henri Temianka, violin virtuoso, conductor, music teacher, and author. Materials include correspondence, concert programs and flyers, music scores, photographs, and books.

Keywords

Henri Temianka, Arturo Delmoni, December 5, 1992, virtuosity in musical performance, culture, violinist, violin, chamber music, camaraderie, husband, wife, death, health and sickness

5 December 1992

Dear Emmy —

Not one day has gone by that I haven't thought of dear Henri & how much I miss him. He was so good to me — his warmth & generosity always moved me so. The news came as such a shock to me because when I saw you both last April in Los Angeles, he looked as healthy & vibrant as ever. There was no reason to think he wouldn't live to be 100! In retrospect, I wish he would have called me when he was ill, so that I could have said a proper farewell. But I have to respect his decision to have dealt with this as he pleased or as he saw fit. He was such a dear & treasured friend. I'll never not miss him!

Your loss is shared by so many
who care about you so much.

With Deepest Sympathy

How I wish I could be there on December 12th. Alas, I simply cannot afford the plane fare. But I shall be there in spirit of that you may be certain.

Dearest Emmy — at some point, hopefully soon,

→

I shall make my way out to Los Angeles, at which time
I hope you will be free & willing to spend some time with me reminiscing with the greatest of pleasure, and of course some sadness as well, about our dearly
departed Henri.

I send you an enormous embrace, my affection,
or my deepest sympathy during this very sad time.

FORGET ME NOT...

With much love,

Arthur

+ 1039096 +

+ 1955 2816-5Q +

[[Nick Dante 9/7/17]]

[[Henri Temianka Correspondence
Arturo Delmoni
Letter #4]]

[[Page 2 – Letter]]

5 December 1992

Dear Emmy

Not one day has gone by that I haven't thought of dear Henri & how much I miss him. He was so good to me – his warmth & generosity always moved me so. The news came as such a shock to me because when I saw you both last April in Los Angeles, he looked as healthy & vibrant as ever. There was no reason to think he wouldn't live to see 100! In retrospect, I wish he would have called me when he was ill, so that I could have said a proper farewell. But I have to respect his decision to have dealt with this as he pleased or as he saw fit. He was such a dear & treasured friend. I'll never not miss him!

[[text: Your loss is shared by so many
who care about you so much.

With Deepest Sympathy]]

How I wish I could be there on December 12th. Alas, I simply cannot afford the plane fare. But I shall be there in spirit – of that you may be certain.

Dearest Emmy – at some point, hopefully soon,

*

[[image – arrow]]

[[Page 3 – Letter]]

I shall make my way out to Los Angeles, at which time
I hope you will be free, willing to spend some time
with me reminiscing with the greatest of pleasure, and of course some sadness or well, about our dearly
departed Henri.

I send you an enormous embrace, my affection,
+ my deepest sympathy during this very sad time.

With much love,
[[underline]] Arturo [[/underline]]