Dear Henri:

Just talked with Greta Waingrow who told me the exciting news about your Scandinavian trip, its responsibilities and pleasures for you. Congratulations!

Fred Waingrow gave me your itinerary and thus I am able to write to you. Did you have decided upon a date for the concert in which you will play "Paintings in Sound"? Greta said she had not heard you mention it so I am writing immediately to make sure you didn't forget about it. The date will make a difference as to when I must get passports, tickets, etc. Please let me know about this at your convenience.

Best wishes.

P.S. I received this month a special award from ASCAP—$250 for my contribution to the literature for audiences. Wasn't I lucky?

Fred Waingrow gave me your itinerary and thus I am able to write to you to ask if you had decided upon a date for the concert in which you will play the “Paintings in Sound”. Greta said she had not heard you mention it so I am writing immediately to make sure you didn’t forget about it. The date will make a difference as to when I must get parts extracted, etc.. Please let me know about this at your convenience.

P.S. I received, this month, a special award from ASCAP -- $250 “for my contribution to the literature for young audiences.” Wasn’t I lucky?
