Dear Henriette

A pretty shabby firk, I'd call it - stay at a man's house all day, listen to his music, eat his salt, sleep on his couch, and then run off with his belt. The plane made good time, but the stewardess stopped my smoking my little black cigarettes. When I protested she said they had a strong odor and made the lady behind me a little nauseated. So being a polite, obliging & considerate man I stopped.

Best to you & Emmy and all my best wishes & my hat off to Henriette.

Yours
Lee.

Dear Henri –

A pretty shabby flick, I'd call it –
stay at a man's home all day, listen to his music,
eat his salt, sleep on his couch, and then run off
with his belt – the plane made good time, but the stewardess stopped my smoking my little black cigarettes. When I protested she said they had a strong odor and made the lady behind me a little nauseated. So being a politū, obliging & considerate man I stopped.

Best to you & Emmy and all my best wishes & my hat off to Henriette.
