Dear Henri

May 16, 1975

Please do forgive the tardiness of this reply to your letter ... Having been away for a short while from Rome, it was only recently that I received it. The mail system being what it is in Italy, (!!) I am sending this express in the hopes that it reaches you shortly.

First, I hope that you and yours are well and in the best of spirits. I was so happy to know that you have enjoyed our work together as our concert together remains in my memory as a great joy. And I thank you for your desire to resume our musical collaborations for which I shall look forward to!

Unfortunately, I am committed to ^(concerts) being in Europe up until June and thus your desire for a recording session in May would not work out.

As my plans stand now, I shall be home in June ... and shall call you upon arrival.

Once again, my warmest greetings to you ... I look forward to seeing you and speaking with you once again.

Truly ...

Uran
