Dear Mr. Temianka:

The currently inactive Board of Trustees of Concerts for Youth, Inc. has, by a majority vote taken viva voce, asked me to tender this mass resignation.

In resigning, the board members have asked me to express to you the pleasure and satisfaction they have received from working with you in the cause of bringing fine music to the children of our community. They all wish you and your new organization, and its Board of Trustees, a happy and successful experience in your continued efforts in this direction.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Gordon
