Dear friend Henri:-

Bonnie and I add to the warm thanks we left with Emmy for both of you on leaving the Ball last evening, our heartiest congratulations to you individually on all the well deserved honors being paid you on the Twentieth Anniversary of the California Chamber Symphony. Among your numerous contributions to the cultural life and joy-in-living of the Southern California Community many are unique, all are of most noteworthy quality. God has blest you with very special gifts of which you have made the most, Henri, and in the doing you have enriched the lives of all who have been exposed to that "specialness".

The performance of the BACH DOUBLE given by you and Yehudi last night was among the most moving, dazzling and stylistically elegant renditions of the Work that Bonnie and I have ever heard.
BRAVO!

I hold it a privilege to have played even a miniscule part in the delightful proceedings, and Bonnie and I restate our thanks to Emmy and you for having us there as your guests.

Ever in friendship,

JOHNNY
