Dear friend, Henri:-

Bonnie joins me in sending you our heartiest and most enthusiastic congratulations on your eightieth birthday. You are, without question, the youngest 80-year-old who ever lived! You have given, and continue to give, such great joy to thousands of people; and, best of all, you make so-called "serious" music a joyous experience for all those fortunate enough to attend your performances. How well you deserve every honor that is paid you!

Bonnie and I are truly and deeply saddened that it will be impossible for us to attend the Birthday Celebration in your honor on October 14th at the Beverly Wilshire. Nevertheless, we want to be, so to say, "represented". Accordingly, our contribution check is herewith enclosed. We wish you a smashingly successful and thoroughly rewarding event.

This note brings to you, in addition to our restated congratulations, our hopes that you and Emmy are in the best of health with spirits to match. We pray that God will grant you another two decades (at least!) of productive, fulfilling living.

Ever in friendship.....

JOHN GREEN
