Mr. Henri Temianka,

Los Angeles 46, California.

Cher Henri:

I don't know when I have been more touched than I was upon receipt of your gift from Canada and its accompanying so warm and friendly note. Truly, it was real "lump-in-the-throat" style. I thank you and my carnations thank you.

I trust that all goes well with you and your family and that I shall have the pleasure of seeing you soon and often.

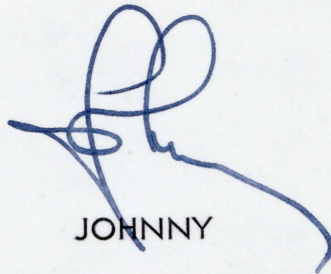

I am sincerely sorry that such have been the pressures of my schedule, and such has been the conflicting nature of our various performances, that I have been unable to attend any of your recent events. Please be sure, however, that it has been a matter of unavoidable conflict; and also be assured of my continuing good will and sustained interest.

I must take this opportunity to thank you rather more formally than I did at the time for your having attended my Bowl concert following our talk at Stravinsky's rehearsal. I was not only grateful to you for coming and honored by your presence, but I was highly complimented by your enthusiastic comment, for which I thank you again.

Repeated gratitude for your Canadian Carnation Cadeau.

Always your friend,
