Los Angeles, California

Dear Victor:

Shortly after I received your interesting letter of April 21st, I tried to get in touch with you, but found that you had already gone abroad. I had hoped to get together with you for a personal meeting, in order to discuss the ways in which I can be of help to your Foundation. You realize, I hope, that financially I cannot be in the category of some of your big supporters, but I think that there are other ways in which I might be useful to you. It is these matters which I would like to talk through with you as soon as return.

I am deeply impressed by the profound significance of the Foundation and wish you great success.

With warmest greetings to you and Kemya,

Yours ever,

Henri Temlanka

HT/ap

P.S. I will send the Foundation a list of friends and acquaintances whom I believe will be interested.
