Dear Henri,

Thank you very much for your letter of July 24th and for sending the little picture taken out here when you visited us.

We are delighted to have your happy news about Emmy and we hope that this time the baby will be a girl ? To make things perfect !

Since you left I was in Boston again about the Museum and it looks pretty sure that we shall eventually get the fabulous Brandegge Estate, but it may still take considerable time since it all more or less depends on the death of old Mrs. Brandegge. It is in a way depressing to have to wait for "dead men's shoes". So we still have to be patient but should not fail in the meantime to work on other sources and possibilities.

We hope you have a very good summer and we both send cordial greetings to you and Emmy.

As ever yours,

Emil Herrmann
