Dear Henri:

I'm sorry to say I have no records of your October letter, which is as apt to be a result of the disheveled state of my correspondence as it is of the U. S. Postal Service.

I am in the midst of rehearsals for MACBETH to be presented here at the Ahmanson Theatre into March. By May I expect to be doing a film that calls for a great deal of location work. I will certainly keep the Allegro Ball on my calendar in case I am available but at this time it is virtually impossible to tell.

Thanks for thinking of me and I hope we do meet at the Ball.

Sincerely,

A large, elegant handwritten signature in cursive script, likely reading "Charlton Heston". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the word "Sincerely,".
