Dear Henri:

Just today I finished your wonderful book. I can't remember when I have had such real enjoyment in reading. You are indeed almost as great at writing as playing - but now quite. Yes, I still remember the beautiful music you made with Lili Kraus at Happy Valley school.

We surely did enjoy having dinner with you and your wife. Please feel free to call and tell us you will come up again and this time we will be able to dine in the garden which^s now full of the most wonderful blooms like wisteria, etc.....

My appreciation of you is vast - writing and playing.

Helen joins me in the very best of loving wishes to you and your adorable wife.

Affectionately,

Alan
