BRONISLAW HUHERMAN

Im Zuge Algier - Oran
9. März 1933

Lieber Herr Temianka,

Besten Dank für Ihren furchtbar netten Brief, über den ich mich damals in meinem Krankenbett sehr gefreut habe. Es war mir damals wenigstens eine Genugtuung, dass ein Mensch etwas von meiner Krankheit gehabt hat, und ich freute mich, durch Schultze von Ihrem Erfolg zu hören. Hoffentlich kann ich Sie bald einmal persönlich hören und mich überzeugen, dass meine erwartungsvollen Eindrücke von Ihren ersten Talentproben berechtigt waren.

Mit besten Grüßen und allen guten Wünschen

Ihr

Bronislaw Huberman

BRONISLAW HUBERMAN

En route, Algier to Oran
9 March 1933

Dear Mr. Temianka,

Many thanks for your terribly nice letter, over which I rejoiced at the time in my sick bed. It was at least a satisfaction to me that at least one man has benefited from my illness, and I also rejoiced to hear through Schultz of your success. I hope that I can once hear you personally and see for myself that my high expectations and impressions of your first talent proofs were justified.

With best greetings and all good wishes

Your

BRONISLAW HUBERMAN
