MEMORANDUM

DATE _____

TO: _____

FROM: ROBERT M. HUTCHINS

Dear Hewitt:

I have been carrying your letter around with me hoping to catch up with you some place. The best chance now appears to be Chicago. The only thing I know definitely is that I am going to be in N.Y. on 25 March - perhaps I can stop in Chicago going or coming.

I am ashamed to say that I have little to report. I have made my proposals to the Foundation, but do not expect a final reply till May. If by any chance the Foundation agrees to my suggestions, I shall rely on you to help me carry them out.

We are all well. I understand that Emmy & Vera are having lunch today.

We all miss you.

Ever yours,

Bob
