Dear Emmy -

The NY Times story hit me today where I was beating back the grand-father of all colds. There is no way to tell how one feels losing a great friend and one of such long standing

I suspect you are being deluged at the moment and it is best for me to wait until the dust settles to try to phone you. Meanwhile if you need to get away there is always the condo in Montecito.

Yours,

Martin Kamen

Dear Emmy –

The NY Times story hit me today where I was beating back the grandfather of all colds. There is no way to tell how one feels losing a great friend and one of such long standing.

I suspect you are being deluged at the moment and it is best for me to wait until the dust settles to try to phone you. Meanwhile if you need to get away there is always the condo in Montecito.

Yours,

Martin Kamen
