Dear Henri and Emmy -

Monstrous mischance had its way last night. I wrote this in Virginia's stationery which she will not use again. It is only to say that the times we had with you back early in the year were bright spots in a grim time. And we are thankful for them.

A small "meeting" is planned for around the middle of June for all who can drive up to S.B. A written tribute with a marvelous snap of Va. holding a solution denying one of her research projects back in '82 is being prepared to be printed. A copy will be mailed to you. Notice of details of the meeting will be provided soon.

I had thought to get an "editorial" type obit into the L.A. Times but they only publish them in connection with "newsworthy" types. I learned this from a Mr. Burt Folkart at the Times. We will try for one in the N.Y. Times. At least there will be a short obit notice in the Classified section of the L.A. Times.

I know you're there and appreciate it.
