Dear H & E - We are not having much luck getting together these months - but we did enjoy the spread in the LA Times! There is the ever on-going invite to visit our spread in Montecito. To get specific - we will be back from a European caper the middle of November. (Before that date there is no hope for us as far as our schedule goes). How about the weekend of Nov. 21-22? We will put you up for an eve at the Biltmore across the street, and wine/dine you at Penelope's Sat. eve.

As for us - Va has still got this tight schedule at the hospital and I am tied up either at Montecito writing or La Jolla working. Son David and our new Chinese daughter-in-law arrive early in November for several months' stay. She is the head librarian at the new University for arts + humanities at Taipei. We can't remember whether we showed you pix. I hope to get going seriously on the auto-bus when I get back from this Oct-Nov junket to Israel, France, Scotland and England where I meet various Britainers. The trip is centered as usual on the meeting of the Governors of the Weizmann Inst. (me being one) which happens annually.

Drop us a line about the Nov. suggestion. If the date is wrong, tell us some alternatives (week ends).

P.S. We have given up on Gen. Tal.
