Dear Henri:

Your letter was finally forwarded here (Tonguewood) where we have been for the summer. (Teaching)

And now we are off again for Calif. Home by the 23rd.

I would love to do a concert with you in San Francisco - but unfortunately cannot do so in the following season.

Am for let in commission

which must be completed soon!! -
And I have solemnly promised to accept nothing until I complete.

I look forward to hearing
from you nevertheless.

Warm greetings
best.

P.S.
That gratel which you read thru at Montalvo(?) my second, (like my first)
won the N.Y. Critics Circle Award for whatever that may mean.

FOR KIRCHNER

which must be completed too!!
And I have obviously prepared to accept nothing with 1 complete
I look forward to hearing
of yourselves.

Warmly
yours

Leo

P.S. I have just received your letter (the original)
and I am glad to hear that you are well.
