my dear Norman,

I am looking at that magnificent Britannica set and cannot quite believe what I see. I thought this kind of largesse had vanished with the old medici.
But here you are, Norman, a prince among men, giving of yourself in every imaginable way, spiritually and materially.

You have deprived me of every excuse to remain uneducated and I love you.

Yours in grateful and devoted
friendship,
Henri

My dear Norman,

I am looking at that magnificent Britannica set and cannot quite believe what I got. I thought this kind of largesse had vanished with the Medici. But here you are, Norman, a prince among men, giving of yourself in every imaginable way, spiritually and materially.

You have deprived me of every excuse to remain uneducated and I love you.

friendship.
