Dear Arthur & Traci:

Many thanks for your gracious note to Emmy and me, and for sending us "The Seven Fat Years." It is the first time I have read a book that did not mention Mozart or Beethoven (I did not know one existed), and considering my ignorance of economics, I was impressed by how much I understood and enjoyed, thanks to the lucid writing, and the frequent references to "Laffer" and the "Laffer Curve," my trusted beacons. We are most grateful to you.

May we soon meet again and revel in our instant friendship, for which we shall forever be indebted to Ray & Maggie.

Emmy joins me in sending warmest regards, and love to beautiful Rachel!

Henri
