2-10-1982

Henri Temianka correspondence; (Pencovic)

Alexis Pencovic

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence/2887

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Henri Temianka Archives at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Henri Temianka Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Henri Temianka correspondence; (Pencovic)

Description
This collection contains material pertaining to the life, career, and activities of Henri Temianka, violin virtuoso, conductor, music teacher, and author. Materials include correspondence, concert programs and flyers, music scores, photographs, and books.

This letter is available at Chapman University Digital Commons: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence/2887
This house, now a state monument, belonged to my high school art teacher (and encourager of my art leanings) and I've been a guest here many times. As a kid I knew the lawn, etc., as well. It still has the 1880 wall paper and is much as it was in 1880, inside. Miss Stansbury died at 96 a few years ago and this wonderful old house was given to the state, and has been restored.

Dear Emery & Henri:

Just a line to let you know that it is now Fred's turn! He just (this AM) had an operation on his prostate, which hopefully will take care of the urinary problem which has been getting worse the past few weeks. Anyhow, the doctor assures me he came out fine and in a few weeks will be back to normal. So, it is now my turn to shop, do errands, etc., etc., etc. - which is only fair, but Mom Nature could have spaced things out a little! I'm coming along O.K. but it's slow and takes time, and I do thank God Fred's crisis didn't occur a month ago!

Now I'll turn to Newcastle! So thanks for your note, and am glad your grandchild is a good Christian! Mazel Tov!!! Hope your dear mother is doing O.K., and also both of you. Take care of each other.

Love, Alice's
This house, now a state monument, belonged to my highschool art teacher (and encourager of my art-leanings) and I’ve been a guest here many times. As a kid I mowed the lawn, etc., as well. It still has the 1880 wall-paper, and as much as it was in 1880, inside. Miss Stansbury died at 96 a few years ago, and this wonderful old house was given to the state, and has been restored.

10 February ’82

Dear Emmy & Henri=

Just a line to let you know that it is now Fred’s turn! He just (this AM) had an operation on his prostate, which hopefully will take care of the urinary problem which has been getting worse the past few weeks. Anyhow, the doctor assures me he came out fine and in a few weeks will be back to normal. So, it’s now my turn to shop, do errands, etc., etc., etc.—which is only fair, but Mom Nature could have spaced things out a little! I’m coming along O.K. but it’s slow and takes time, and I do thank God Fred’s crisis didn’t occur a month ago!

Now I’ve carried my coals to Newcastle! So thanks for your note, & am glad your grandchild is a good Christian! Mazeltov!!! Hope your poor mother is doing O.K., and also both of you. Take care of each other.

Love

Alexis