Dear Waltraud:

It was with exceptional pleasure that I received your letter of September 6. How many cherished memories we share! It makes me extremely happy to see that, after all the grief and sorrow you have endured, you are now creating a project that will serve to enrich future generations of violinists with the fruits of Henryk's priceless heritage.

It is with the greatest pleasure that I participate in this project, and indeed I feel honored to be a part of it. Please keep me informed as to the progress of your endeavors.

We are hoping to be on the French Riviera a year from now, in the course of a Mediterranean cruise, and perhaps we shall have the good fortune of seeing you again at that time. I shall of course be in touch with you as we go along.

In the hope that you are well and surrounded by loving friends,

Yours ever,

Henri Temianka
