Dear Henri:

Thank you very much for your kind letter dated September 25th. I am very touched by your warm and enthusiastic reply ; your reaction is a real encouragement and I wish to express my deep thanks for your generous offer to help and assist the Henryk Szeryng Foundation by allowing the California Chamber Symphony Society to become one of its associates.

I am gratefully looking forward to our cooperation and shall keep you regularly informed about the Foundation's activities and each of its Award Winners. Upon your choice and decision regarding the young violinist you wish to invite and the date of his performance, the Foundation will discuss with you the conditions of his engagement.

In the meantime, please receive my very best wishes and again - many heartfelt thanks for your wonderful support.

Most cordially yours,
