Dear Maestro,

I want to thank you again for giving me the opportunity to perform the Bach Suite. Your generous comments made me all the more grateful to you because I know that without all these years of your constant guidance and support I would be nowhere today.

Maestro, there is a violinist in New York with whom I had played a trio concert at the Grand Teton Music Festival last year. His name is Mr. Chin KIM, he had been to one of our concerts in L.A. He gave me some materials ~~and~~ wishing that I might have a chance to pass them to you. I feel very guilty towards you because I never take our relationship for granted. May I send the package to your office when I return to L.A. after March 19th? I like to apologize for the impoliteness with which I have handled this matter.

Best Wishes

Most Respectfully Yours

Timothy
