To My friend, Gary,

Hello, Gary, you must likely be wondering who I am? Well, buddy, my name is John Knowles. I live in Johnstown, Pennsylvania. Gary, I was one of the fellows in the 1st Platoon, 2nd Squad, 4th Company. At Christmas I received your very wonderful and well appreciated gift, which was the prayer book. This book I keep on me at all times and often read out of it, and say a prayer for you, Gary, for you are a very fine young man, and God bless you with this.

Gary, I am now in Headquarters Company, Second Battalion, Fifth Regimental Combat Team. I was transferred from 4th Company to Headquarters this date finds me on front as a switchboard operator, a job I like alot.

Well, Gary, I have told you about myself; so let us talk a little about you. How did you enjoy your Easter this year? Did Easter Bunny was good to you. Let me know what all you Did during the last vacation? I am sure a good time was had by you.

How are you doing in school? I trust the highest grades are being made by you. Keep up good work in school, Gary, and later on you will be well rewarded.

Well Gary there is not much more to say for now. I have high hopes of hearing from you in the very near future. May God Bless you and Guide you at all times.

Your pal

John
