Dear Evabel,

Received your very nice letter and picture and was glad to get it. Glad you sure do look good, did you lose some weight or something?

Evabel, I am sure glad that you like our home and I am sure it must be all that you say it by because I know that Madelyn has good taste and is quite resourceful.

That husband of yours sure was a letter and I am wondering just where the devil he is now but I suppose he has got himself mixed with them thieves over there so he is too busy to write.

Well Evabel take it easy and don't work too hard, so I'll close with my best regrets.

Your brother
Jim

That husband of yours owes me a letter and I am wondering just where the devil he is now, but I suppose he has got himself maid up with them Germans over there so he is too busy to write.

Well Evabel take it easy and don’t work too hard, so I’ll close with my best regards

Your brother,
