Texts

Dies Irae – sung in Latin

Day of wrath, day that will dissolve the world into burning coals, as David prophesied with the Sibyl.

How great trembling there will be, when the judge comes
To strictly sentence all.
Merciful Lord Jesus, grant them rest.

Lift thine eyes

Lift thine eyes to the mountains, whence cometh help.

As the child is asleep, she sets the table first, then the china, then the glasses. And then she washed her face and hands with water from the pump... Not a drop fell on her apron.

And as her little brother lay asleep in his cradle, she went outdoors, sat upon a stone and looked up to see the evening star. Ah.

Gloria – sung in Latin

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to His people on earth. Lord God heavenly King, almighty and everlasting God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father; receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Petite Voix – sung in French

La petite fille sage (The good little girl)

One day after school had closed to her home a little girl came carrying her bag. She sat the table neatly, first the china, then the heavy glasses. And then she washed her face and hands with water from the pump... Not a drop fell on her apron.

Le chien perdu (The lost dog)

Who are you little dog? Are you lost little dog? All day you dream, you slumber. Maybe you would be pleased if I scratched your little head. Just behind your silky ears. Dear little dog lost in the street, lifting your face to me, gazing so trustfully.

En reentrant de l'école (When coming home from school)

When coming home from school at dusk by a lonely road, I saw the moon come up through a forest of black trees. She was so round and clear and shone so brightly too... la, la, la.

Le petit garçon malade (The little sick boy)

Oh lonely little sick boy, he is weary of looking at pictures. He shuts his tired eyes and lets his hot hands fall slowly on the bed. The nurse opens wide the window and the curtain blows very gently in
No matter what the test
Trust and never doubt
Jesus will surely bring you out
He never failed me yet.
One day when my weary soul is at rest
I'm going home to be forever blessed
Trust and never doubt
Jesus will surely bring you out
He never failed me yet.

Bring me little water, Silvy
Bring me little water now
Bring me little one in a while.

Silvy come a runnin'
Bucket in my hand
I will bring you water
Fast as I can
Can't you see me comin'?
Can't you see me now?
I will bring you little water
Every little one in a while.

Bring me little water, Silvy
Every little one in a while.

Bring it in a bucket, Silvy
Every little one in a while.

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:

On behalf of our faculty, staff and students, thank you for joining us for this exciting presentation. I am grateful to all the members of our College of Performing Arts family for the support that allows us to continue to present great performances like the one you are about to see.

Preparing the next generation of performers and artists takes the support of all of us who are passionate about the performing arts and who value its presence in our lives. As a supporter of the arts, you have a crucial role to play to ensure the success of the College of Performing Arts and the students who are at the heart of all we do. Your financial support allows the College of Performing Arts to provide the kind of educational and performing opportunities crucial to our students' growth into artists. Please join our community of loyal alumni, parents and community partners devoted to developing the talents of the next generation of artists with a gift to the Fund for Excellence.

The Fund for Excellence supports College of Performing Arts initiatives that enhance our students' experience. Your gift to the Fund for Excellence has a tremendous impact on all of our programs by:

- Providing our students with opportunities to work with professional artists;
- Ensuring top notch community performances of classic and contemporary art;
- Strengthening our programs by maintaining our ability to attract the brightest and most talented students from across the country.

No matter what level you choose to support the College of Performing Arts, you will be a part of a family of individuals who demonstrate, year after year, that they are fully committed to developing the talents of young artists. And most importantly, I hope you make your gift because you value the arts and want to invest in our next generation of artists.

Enjoy the performance, and I look forward to seeing you again throughout the season.

Sincerely,

Dale A. Merrill, Dean
Thank you to our
