School of Music Hosts Ames Piano Quartet Concert

Who/What:

In conjunction with a two-day residency at the Chapman University School of Music, the internationally acclaimed Ames Piano Quartet presents a concert featuring music by Brahms, Turina and Paul Schoenfield.

The ensemble, which was formed in 1976, has recorded six acclaimed albums for the Dorian label. Fanfare magazine called its Dvorak quartets album "one of the best chamber music recordings of the century."

The Ames Piano Quartet has toured throughout the U.S. and also has played in Canada, Mexico, France, Austria and the Far East. The quartet recently became the first American chamber group in 40 years to perform in Cuba, spending a week performing and teaching in Havana.
