Jeremy Bolin, a junior vocal performance major, has been involved in music since the age of 6. He was actively involved in various music groups at Saugus High School and the College of the Canyons. In high school he was awarded the Outstanding Senior in Fine Arts, the Semper Fidelis Award and several choir scholarships. After graduation from Chapman he hopes to enter graduate school on the east coast. He wishes to thank you all for coming.

Justine Limpic is a junior vocal performance major. She has been involved in music since she was 12. Justine attended Vintage High School in Napa where she participated in three choral groups. She also won several scholarship awards during high school, including first place in the Annual Voice Scholarship competition. Justine isn't sure what she'll do after graduating from Chapman, but knows that this experience will be rewarding. She also wishes to thank you all for coming.

Tessa White is a junior at Chapman, pursuing a B.F.A in Theater Performance with a minor in music. Tessa studied voice for several years in her native state of Tennessee and was active in music and theater in high school. At Chapman, her performances include Savage/Love, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead, She Loves Me and Stop Kiss, and American Celebration (1999, 2000 & 2001), She is a member of the Performing Arts Studio Tessa would like to dedicate the song Stars and the Moon to her dear friend Natalie Sander.
